

Photo & Video Release

Throughout the year, King's documents and celebrates campus life and student achievements. If a King's representative from the Advancement Office or Registrar's Office captures your image individually, or as part of a group of fewer than five people, they will seek your written consent before making the content public. King's does not sell material to third parties and does not give use of this material to third parties, unless it is with King's permission and exclusively for the promotion of King's.

Please check any and all of the following for which you grant permission:

- I agree to the inclusion of my photograph (a photograph provided by me or taken by a university-appointed photographer with my permission) in print and digital publications that the University of King's College produces for its promotional materials and in the course of documenting campus and student life.

- I agree to the inclusion of video content in the form of an interview for use in digital publications that the University of King's College produces for its promotional materials and in the course of documenting campus and student life.

- I agree to the use of my image in King's social media feeds.
